PETITION FOR BREAKWATER TO PROTECT HARBOR

Samuel Cunningham this week circulated a petition addressed to the Delegate from Alaska, requesting the Government to construct a breakwater 350 feet in length from Shustak point extending out beyond the big rock in the harbor for the protection of small craft which are in the habit of using Wrangell harbor during the winter season for lying by. Mr. Cunningham is surely to be commended for his public spirited action. The fishing industry is one which the Federal Government cannot afford to neglect. The request for this much needed improvement for the protection of fishing craft is a reasonable one, and it is to be hoped that the Government will act favorably thereon.

The petition was eagerly signed by residents of Wrangell. Following is a copy of the petition:

Wrangell, Alaska,
April 19, 1919.
The Hon. The Delegate
from Alaska,
Washington, D. C.
Sir:

We, the undersigned, residents of Wrangell and owners of fishing vessels using the waters of S. E. Alaska, would respectfully represent as under, and would bespeak your best efforts to lay out request before the proper Government authorities in an endeavor to secure this very necessary improvement:

Wrangell Harbor opens to the N. E. As many as one thousand small fishing craft are in the habit of using this harbor during the winter season for lying by, but when high northerly or westerly winds blow the water becomes so rough that they are compelled to put to sea to their great peril and inconvenience. This can be obviated by the construction of a breakwater only 350 feet in length. The average depth of water for this 350 feet is 4 1/2 ft., at extreme low tide, and the largest tide is about 20 ft. A breakwater of loose rocks, which are available in the immediate vicinity would be adequate to create a smooth water harbor in all winds. May we ask your hearty cooperation in the attempt to secure this necessary improvement?

the Japanese press with striking unanimity are attacking Great Britain and demanding a Monroe Doctrine for the Orient.

SEATTLE—H. J. Christoffers, assistant agent has announced that the Government Bureau of Fisheries this summer plans to slaughter 30,000 seals on St. Paul's island. The furs will be tanned and the carcasses reduced to oil and fertilizer in the reduction plant installed by the Government last year on the islands.

ARCHANGEL—Brigadier General W. P. Richardson, former Alaska Army man, connected with the Alaska Road Commission has arrived here with his staff to take command of the American forces in northern Russia.

Brigadier General Richardson and his party arrived on board an icebreaker, the first to get through since last fall. He read a telegram from General John J. Pershing, praising and encouraging the men in Russia.

VICTOR IRGENS DIES IN NEW YORK

Formerly a Resident of Wrangell—Nephew of Mrs. Edwin Hofstad

Mrs. Edwin Hofstad has received the news of the death in New York of her nephew, Victor Irgens.

Mr. Irgens will be remembered in Wrangell, as he was formerly employed on the Government boat Osprey, and had many friends in this vicinity.

Victor Irgens was born in Portland, Oregon, 23 years ago. When about a year old, his parents, who were Norwegians, returned to Norway, taking little Victor with them. When the boy became 18 years of age he returned to the United States and found his way to Alaska. Upon reaching 21 years of age he became a citizen of the United States. Shortly thereafter he returned to Norway.

Last year Mr. Matheson, chairman of the local military registration board, received a letter from the United States consul in Bergen, Norway, stating that Victor Irgens had voluntarily appeared before him and registered as an American citizen, giving Wrangell, Alaska, as his address. He stated that Irgens was leaving for New York via Jamaica, and that he (Irgens) wished the Wrangell board to waive jurisdiction so that he would be permitted to enlist in New York. Mr. Matheson at once took the necessary steps to comply with the request.

In Jamaica Mr. Irgens had a severe illness from which he never fully recovered. Further details are lacking except that his father was with him in New York at the time of his death. The father will take the body back to Norway for interment.

Work on the refugee garments which the Wrangell Red Cross chapter must finish by June 1, commenced Tuesday. There are five weeks left in which to make 200 petticoats and shirts. The Craig branch has been asked to make as many of the garments as possible and one busy Wrangell mother has offered to make 24 at home. Last Friday, 16 petticoats were given out for home work and on Tuesday, 11 more were partly made at the sewing room. The average attendance at the twice-a-week sewing is not over 12. Two women are doing all the cutting, which is no small task; one does all the pressing, folding and bundling at home, and one works the buttonholes every meeting day. Other workers sew, sew, sew! They come, not because time would otherwise hang heavily on their hands, but because they feel it their duty to do what they can for a stricken people.

There are women who, for one reason or another, cannot sew, and a few whose time is not theirs to give, but if you are not one of these, won't you help?

VICTORY LOAN

Rev. J. S. Clark, chairman of the Council of Defense, received the following cablegram Monday: Juneau—Your district has been allotted five medals made from captured German cannon to be awarded to the five volunteer workers securing the largest amount of subscriptions to the Victory Loan. At completion of the drive, forward the names so that medals may be issued. —Riggs, Governor.

JEFFERSON SAILS

SEATTLE—The Jefferson sailed at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning with 190 passengers, including Chinese crews for Wrangell, Ketchikan, Skowl Arm, Point Warde. Passengers booked for Wrangell are: F. S. Barnes, S. Collinson, W. A. Thompson, Dennis White, F. A. Jackson, Miss Adelia Gass, William Miller and wife, Mrs. Wm. Fraser, Arnold McDonald, C. A. Thompson and wife, Chas. McDonald and wife, N. D. Lewis, D. W. Miller, Ellen Miller, James Yen, J. C. Detlefsen, Miss Ronan, Mrs. D. L. Wing, Harvey Wing, Mrs. Jas. McGlinn, Joel Wing, Gerald McGlinn, Master Fraser Floyd McGlinn, Joel Wing; 11 Chinese.

To give employment to thousands of refugee women in France, Belgium, Italy, Rumania, Serbia, Greece, Montenegro, Palestine, Albania and other war-swept countries, and thereby help them to help themselves, the American Red Cross has just shipped to its Commission for France more than 900,000 pounds of yarn—100,000 pounds of which was sent from the Northwest Division—and 822,429 sets of knitting needles, the whole valued at $2,316,445. The distribution of this material will be made as equitably as possible by the Commission for France, which is intimately acquainted with the needs in the various countries.

Red Cross authorities at national headquarters are particularly anxious that this large shipment of yarn and needles be not interpreted as justifying the slightest cessation of Red Cross knitting activity in America.

Another Bungalow Party

The Bachelor's Bungalow on Church street was again the scene of a merry party on Saturday night.

Cards and games were played while dancing furnished the chief amusement during the entire evening. Ice cream, cake and coffee were served at various times, and it was at an early hour on Easter morning when the guests finally took their departure.

St. Philip's Church

The Man Who Believed Without Seeing

April 27, 1919 at 7:30 p. m.
Does the man from Missouri ever get off wrong? Is it sometimes an error to say "You must show me." The Master says "Blessed is he who believes, who has not seen." St. John did this. This will be the first sermon of a series on the "Heroes of the first Easter." Should you not keep up with the times in religious matters? The reason so many doubt is because they do not know what Christianity is, and what the Church teaches. Come and help.

CHAS. INGERSOLL TO START A MILD CURING PLANT

Attorney Chas. E. Ingersoll, proprietor of the Revilla Hotel, at Ketchikan has another iron in the fire. He too, goes into the fish business. Tomorrow the snow trader and the gas boat Galaxy will leave for the West Coast with a crew of six men aboard under the management of Mr. James Taylor, who will operate a floating mild-curing plant during the coming season.

Mr. Ingersoll plans to accompany the boats over to the West Coast. The plant will operate in the vicinity of "The Hole" near Rose Point. —Miner.

WESTON DALGITY RETURNS HOME

Received His Discharge at Quantico, Virginia

Weston Dalgity surprised his many friends when he arrived in Wrangell last Friday morning on the Princess Marv. He was recently discharged from the Marine Service at Quantico, Va.

Mr. Dalgity left Wrangell last July for the purpose of enlisting. He was first stationed at Mare Island near San Francisco, and later transferred to Quantico, Va.

Before entering military service Weston Dalgity was for two years connected with the Wrangell Sentinel. Therefore, it was with no little pride that we placed a service flag at the head of our editorial column when the young man who had served the Sentinel so faithfully entered upon the more important duty of serving his country.

To Weston Dalgity and all the other returning Wrangell soldier boys we say: "Most joyfully we welcome you back. May the days as well as the years ahead of you ever keep fresh in your memory the appreciation and pride which mere words alone cannot express."

Weston states that his brief military experience has spoiled him for indoor work. He has accepted a position with the Willson & Sylvester Mill company.

RED CROSS

Thirty-six million pounds more of American soldiers than went to France are being brought back to their homes. It is said by the Army medical authorities that the men in France gained on the average about 12 pounds apiece, or 18,000 tons altogether while they were busy with the boche in Picardy and Flanders. It should not be forgotten by those admiring relatives and friends who welcome their bigger boys home again that Red Cross chocolate and Red Cross canteen sandwiches and coffee may have had something to do with it!

The Needhams Leave Ketchikan

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Needham, of the Ketchikan Pioneer, a weekly publication, who recently sold their plant to the Ketchikan Printing company, left last evening for Seattle.

Mrs. Needham will go to Detroit and Chicago to visit relatives while Mr. Needham will remain in Seattle and other Puget Sound cities.

Both are pioneers of Alaska, Mr. Needham following the newspaper business in various parts of the territory. His last venture was here in partnership with the late Paul Stanhope in the Monthly and later in the Weekly Pioneer. Their many friends will wish them success wherever they may decide to settle. —Ketchikan Miner.

Hydaburg Couple Commit Matrimony

A quiet wedding ceremony was performed yesterday afternoon in the parlors of the Stedman Hotel at Ketchikan at which Rev. Falconer of Klukwan, officiated, when Walter Frank and Edna Frank of Hydaburg were made man and wife.

Walter Frank is the leading purse seamer of Southeastern Alaska and is the owner of the "Pride." His bride is the widow of his brother, Mason Frank, who was a victim of the influenza epidemic last November.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank came over from Hydaburg via the Portage and report the trail in a very bad condition with about seven or eight feet of snow still on the ground.

They will spend a few days in town visiting friends before returning to Hydaburg where they will make their home. —Miner.

The residence of Walter Waters has been remodeled during the past week.

THE BOX FACTORY STARTED MONDAY

The box factory of the Willson & Sylvester Mill company started up Monday morning. The new factory has a capacity of 6,000 boxes a day and is better constructed than the old factory which was destroyed by fire last year. The machinery is the very best that could be bought for the purpose for which it is used. Mr. Hendricks, the builder, states that the present high price of machinery has made the rebuilding of the mill and box factory cost at least twice as much as it would have cost ten years ago.

John, Gertrude, Annie and Albert Ostrom who have been attending Cushman School at Tacoma, arrived on the Admiral Evans Sunday night. Gertrude is making her home with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wing. Annie is living with Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Carlstrom. John and Albert are staying with their father.

Fred Hovey arrived in Wrangell on the Admiral Evans Tuesday night. Mr. Hovey will be foreman of the Alaska Sanitary Packing company at Wrangell this season, succeeding E. F. Walker who this year will be foreman of a cannery at Cape Fanshaw owned by the same company.

In our report of the organization of the Alaska Labor Union in Wrangell last week the name of Eddie Berkeley was inadvertently omitted from the list of names forming the Executive Board. Mr. Berkeley, owing to his intimate knowledge of the fishing business, will prove a valuable man on the board.

Len Horgheim arrived home on the Admiral Evans Thursday night. Mr. Horgheim was called to California several months ago by the illness of his wife who passed away recently. Mr. Horgheim reports that two of his daughters, Miss Amanda and Edith have positions as stenographers in San Francisco, and that Miss Belle Horgheim is keeping house for them.

Mike Jackson, a Sitka Native, recently of Juneau, accidentally shot himself at a logging camp Sunday, shattering the left elbow and forearm. He was brought to town by Chester Worthington. Dr. Sherrill amputated the arm.

Mrs. Upshaw, wife of T. W. Upshaw, vice president of the Bank of Alaska, will arrive on the Princess Marv next Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Upshaw will occupy the residence recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Warren.

Wrangell Local No. 10 of the Alaska Labor Union held its first regular meeting in the Bank last Sunday afternoon. It was decided to hold regular meetings each Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock during the fishing season. Fish prices will be discussed at the meeting next Sunday.

A second shipment of old clothing for the refugees will be sent from Wrangell in a few days. Anyone having anything for this shipment is requested to send it to the city hall Friday afternoon or to notify the chairman of the committee, Mrs. Oscar Carlson.

Robert Brown arrived from Seattle on the City of Seattle Tuesday night. Mr. Brown is a son of Dr. Anna Brown.

Mrs. F. E. Willard Dead

Mrs. F. E. Willard who was in Wrangell during November and December, passed away the first of the month at Vashon Island, Seattle.

She was in the employ of the Standard Oil company and was on business for the corporation. Mr. and Mrs.
Willard were in Wrangell less than three months, but in that time they made many friends, all of whom will learn of Mrs. Willard's death with deep regret. The following is reproduced from the Vashon Island
Advertiser:

Frances E. Willard Corvill was born August 1, 1880, at Odessa, New York. When two years of age she came to Seattle with her parents,
Mr. and Mrs. George H. Corvill.
She was graduated from the Broadway high school, class of 1905, and attended the University of Washington two years. At 13 years of age she assisted in founding and became a charter member of the Green Lake Congregational church.
In 1917 she accepted the Christian Science faith. November 2, 1910, she was united in marriage to Frederick E. Willard of Seattle, who survives her. Through accomplishment in both vocal and instrumental music she was often enabled to bring pleasure into the lives of many. Since January first of this year she had been staying with her parents at their home at Vashon Island, where she passed from this life Saturday, April 5th. Mrs.
Willard had been in frail health for a number of years, enduring much suffering with true Christian fortitude.
Her last words were the closing sentence of the twenty-third Psalm, "I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever." The memory of her sweet life is a precious legacy.

The funeral will be held at the home of the deceased.

BODY OF SULZER SENT EAST

(Ketchikan Miner)

The body of the late Charles A.
Sulzer, who died Tuesday evening
was shipped east to Elizabeth, N. J., on the Northwestern last night, according to instructions received from Wm. Sulzer, brother of the deceased.

A beautiful floral piece was sent south on the Northwestern by the territorial legislature as their tribute to the dead.

MARSHAL PETAIN.

His enemies, who pounded so long
at the grim walls of Verdun and left so many thousands of their dead on the slopes it crowned, will acknowledge that the marshal's baton could not have been more worthily bestowed than upon Gen. Henri Philippe Petain, the commander in chief of the French armies. At the beginning of the war Petain was only a colonel.
The highest honor of a French soldier came through years of service in which he displayed such unusual military qualities as to make his promotion from one grade to another a rapid,
certain and well-deserved advance,
says New York Sun. He was an exemplar of Napoleon's famous doctrine, for the marshal's baton was always in his knapsack. It has been said that Petain's greatest quality was his grasp of the situation, his marvelous intuition of war and battle. As the polls saw him at Verdun, he was a man of infinite regard for details, and the energy, will power and ability to act decisively in the face of difficulties and reverses. But as superb as were all these qualities was that other one expressed in the darkest hour at Verdun—"Courage, comrades! We'll get them!" He is the third marshal of France that the war has made—Joffre, Foch, Petain. It seems peculiarly fitting that on the day that this great honor was conferred upon the last of these he should enter the old fortress of Metz and see the glory of France restored to the redeemed provinces of Alsace and Lorraine.

With the closing or slowing down of many war industries there will be a necessary shift of industrial work, but this country has for two years been short of many essentials in domestic trade which can now be given in plenty and with little reduction of actual labor. Those who fear that changes will come so rapidly as to promote revolutionary ideas should remember that our great task in this war is not yet completed. It is more than probable that we shall keep 1,000,000 men in Europe for more than a year. This,
with the resumption of normal manufacturing, ought to act as a sort of brake to stabilize industries and make the new organization the more easily effected.

It is not too much to say that the universal recognition by the American people of the necessity of individual saving and conservation was one of the principal factors that won the victory over Germany. For if they had not complied so generally with the food regulations it would have been impossible to keep the people of the allied countries supplied with the necessities of life. The war would have been lost through the failure of sustenance of those who were bearing the heaviest burden of it.

Students of Asiatic problems perceive a dazzling light in the east in the formation of the new Siberian republic that developed so amazingly and will so revolutionize age-old concepts of the far eastern question. It is too early, perhaps, for the world to realize what the bringing of western democracy to the east—incidentally to the bigger half of the habitable globe—means in the development of the entire human problem, but great things are coming out of Asia.

American engineers say it will take from eight months to three years to put the coal mines of Lens, France,
back into good working condition.
With what they have seen of Americans working, the natives will expect the mines to be in action in much nearer eight months than three years. Having seen Americans perform the apparently impossible, they will look to them to keep on doing so.

Stefansson's aid, who piloted his schooner, says there is nothing to be gained from Polar explorations. That has long been the suspicion in the lay mind, but the lure of the dangerous unknown will always have its attraction aside from any practical benefit to the race.

The Paris Matin estimates France's bill of damages against Germany at $68,000,000,000. The claims of Russia, Italy, Great Britain, Belgium, Japan and the United States based upon similar estimates would make the total claim against Germany $1,000,000,000, 000.

Things are already getting back to the pre-war basis. Time is money and this country does not waste it in idle waiting. The rapidity with which we got into the war astonished the world,
and we are not going slow about reconstruction.

An incidental but significant proof that the war is over is found in the fact that jewelers' stocks of left-on-hand "service" rings and pins are already being marked down one-half.

About all those iron crosses are good for now is to become Yankee souvenirs. Even the Huns who won 'em don't want 'em.

VICTORY LOAN

The Victory loan campaign opened last Monday. The issue consists of notes of same denominations as of previous bonds but will not be over five years duration instead of longer term bonds. The notes will be dated May 20th and full payment may be made with application or payment may be made upon the following installment plan with accrued interest on deferred payments:

- 10 per cent on or before May 10.
- 10 per cent July 15.
- 20 per cent August 12.
- 20 per cent September 9.
- 20 per cent October 7.
- 20 per cent November 11.

There are two classes of notes offered, the first form being 4% per cent 1/2 years convertible gold notes exempt from state and local tax, except estate and inheritance tax and from normal Federal income tax. These notes will be convertible at the option of the holder throughout their life into 3% per cent 1/2 year convertible gold notes exempt from all Federal, State, local tax, except estate and inheritance. In like manner the 3% per cent notes will be convertible into the 4% notes. The amount of the issue will be $4,500,000,000. Over-securities will be rejected and the plan to that adopted in connection with the first Liberty Loan. Allotment will be made in full on subscriptions up to and including $10,000. Interest will be payable on December 15, 1919 and thereafter semi-annually on June and December 15th. All or any of the notes may be redeemed for maturity at the option of the United States on June 15 or December 15, 1922 at par and accrued interest. In fixing the terms of the issue, the Treasury has been guided by the desire to devise a security which will not only prove attractive to the people of the country in the first instance but the terms of which should insure a good market for the notes and after the campaign is over identical prices for the two series should not affect injuriously the market for the existing bonds of the Liberty loans. This will be the last Liberty loan as the remaining war bills are presented, further borrowing will be done.

It is anticipated that the requirements of the Government in excess of the amount of taxes and other income, can, in view of the decrease of expenditures be readily financed by the issue of Treasury Certificates from time to time as heretofore, which may be ultimately refunded by the issue of notes or bonds without the aid of another great popular campaign.

Let us keep up the reputation of this community and "go over the top."

Soldiers or Class F 5?

Jobs for soldiers isn't all a matter of newspaper talk. After every war the poor devils who have gone out and fought to keep us stay-at-homes on Easy Street, have had to hustle around to get themselves a job.

Thirty dollars a month to risk life.

Five to twenty dollars a day to stay home.

It's a fine thing for a soldier discharged and penniless to come home and hoof the streets looking for a job, while aliens are riding around in their automobiles.

If a man comes to this country to earn a living, make him become a citizen; if he has no inclination to be a citizen in a country that treats him kindly, there is ample tonnage in both Atlantic and Pacific ports to take him back to his old country.

Every returned American soldier must have a job.

Every alien who hid behind his citizenship, must move on and make room.

Americans are better men, better workers, more skilled, more intelligent; they have more initiative. The American is a cleaner living man; he is a better spender, he contributes to the prosperity of his country.

It doesn't matter whether a man came from China or from England if he becomes a citizen of the United States. Then he'll have our protection—he's one of us. But the alien has no place in industry.

The American soldier comes first. It's up to all of us. We must refuse to buy goods made by aliens in our factories. We must refuse to deal with those who employ aliens while returned American soldiers are out of work. We must ask friends who are employers, "Who are you for—Soldiers or Class F 5?"

Remember, 4,000,000 men who went out to protect us must now be protected by us.—Cattle Compass.

It is reported that the interior department has renewed the contract with the Portland Sanitarium company, for the care of Alaskan insane at a very material increase in price, caused by war conditions. The choice is a wise one. We know of no place where we would rather be crazy than in Portland under the care of Doctor Coe.—Valdez Miner.

GRIP, INFLUENZA

Hamlin's Wizard Oil a Reliable, Antiseptic Preventive

During influenza epidemics spray the nose and throat several times a day with one part Wizard Oil and two parts water, using an atomizer. If you haven't an atomizer, gargle the throat and snuff the mixture up the nose. This treatment sets up an antiseptic wall of defense against "Flu" germs.

Chest colds and sore throat lead to grip. Stop them at once with Wizard Oil before they can develop into dangerous influenza.

MAY MAKE EFFORT TO RAISE SOPHIA

VICTORIA—It is probable that an effort will be made during the summer to salvage the C. P. R. steamer Princess Sophia which struck on Vanderbilt reef and sank two days later in October last. The vessel lies on top of a submerged hill 700 feet high and it was reported that the hull had broken in two. Diver Jacobsen who went down later reported that she was still intact and since that time the question of raising the wreck has been debated.

It is expected that the Tees will be sent north next month to make a complete survey and in all probability she will not return to Victoria until she takes the Sophia with her. It is probable that at least two salvage ships may be required and possibly the Santa Cruz may be brought north to aid in the work.—Prince Rupert News.

Out in Idaho a mining company has ordered that all of its employees who claimed exemption from the draft on the ground that they were not citizens of the United States shall be dismissed and their places filled by men who either responded or held themselves in readiness to respond to the nation's call. Not such a bad idea.
